Overview

“With deep and practical experience across many industries, I listen and ask questions to clarify the objectives of my clients and then help them achieve these objectives in the most efficient way possible.”

Larry works with iconic luxury and fashion brands in addition to entertainment industry leaders as they make critical business decisions. His practice includes counseling clients on the adoption, protection, use, and maintenance of trademarks as well as product and package designs.

Also a patent attorney, Larry is a leading design patent lawyer before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office protecting product designs essential to clients’ success in competitive markets. In addition, Larry advises clients on due diligence, intellectual property audits, and enforcement strategies, including U.S. Customs surveillance.

Larry’s clients own intellectual property in a broad spectrum of fields, including luxury, media and entertainment, music, hospitality, consumer products, and wine and spirits.
